

SMITHSONIAN EXHIBIT TO OPEN IN APRIL AT ARTS CENTER

Submitted photo

Elder Munch and Elder Reeves, missionary volunteers with the Colquitt County Arts Center, recently hung a banner to build excitement over the upcoming Smithsonian Museum exhibit, 'Hometown Teams: How Sports Shape America.' The traveling exhibit will open April 22. Before it does, though, the Arts Center will continue to host the International Craft Exhibit from the World Craft Council of North America through the end of March. Learn more about the exhibit in DownHome magazine, available now.
