Humanities in the 11th Congressional District

Who benefits from your support?

Local Communities
Your support delivers high-quality programming to your community and others throughout the state. Every dollar we spend leverages at least $4 at the local level.

Featured grant: Acworth Cultural Arts Center, 2016 Allatoona Book Festival
Readers, writers, and visual artists came together to celebrate books with panel discussions, writing workshops, and an exhibition of artwork inspired by the book Ecology of a Cracker Childhood. Georgia writers Valerie Boyd, Jim Auchmutey, and Teresa Weaver headlined the event, and Janisse Ray, author of Ecology of a Cracker Childhood (named a book all Georgians should read by the Georgia Center for the Book), delivered the keynote address.

Over the last five years, Georgia Humanities has made 199 grant awards totaling more than $399,500 to local organizations around the state. More than $1.13 million in matching funds were raised by local communities.

Hometown Teams: How Sports Shape America
A Smithsonian-quality exhibit pairs with local programming to engage small-town audiences and to serve as a catalyst for revitalized community partnerships and tourism.

- Local partners: Bartow County Library, Lake Point Sports, Cartersville Downtown Development Authority
- Projected attendees: 200,000 statewide

The exhibit will be on display in Cartersville at Bartow History Museum July 29 - September 9, 2017.
Veterans
Talking Service Veterans Project is a program for veterans transitioning to civilian life. Participants read and discuss selections from the anthology Standing Down: From Warrior to Civilian on military themes throughout history, at times relating the book’s subjects with their own experiences. With support from National Endowment for the Humanities, Georgia Humanities sponsored this pilot program in our state and is seeking additional sponsors to continue the program.
