Humanities in the 13th Congressional District

Who benefits from your support?

Local Communities
Your support delivers high-quality programming to your community and others throughout the state. Every dollar we spend leverages at least $4 at the local level.

National History Day Georgia
Using primary and secondary resources, middle- and high school students conduct and present original research by creating an exhibit, essay, documentary, performance, or website.

- Stockbridge student Morgan Gill won a special award from the Georgia World War I Centennial Commission at the state contest for National History Day Georgia. This award recognized her documentary, “The Great Women Behind the Great War.”
- Regional contest held at Henry County School System.

Coming Grant-Funded Attractions in 2019
- “Capitol History Highlights,” University of Georgia Research Foundation, Atlanta
In a spirit of collaboration, Georgia Humanities gathers, preserves, and shares our state’s distinctive stories through a range of cultural and educational programs and resources. Our work nurtures Georgians’ understanding of themselves and of our state’s place in history and in the world. Our work fosters thoughtful and engaged citizenship.