Local Communities
Your support delivers high-quality programming to your community and others throughout the state. Every dollar we spend leverages at least $4 at the local level.

Featured Grant:
Revival: Lost Southern Voices Revisited
Held at Perimeter College at Georgia State University, in Dunwoody, this two-day festival brought together authors, teachers, humanities scholars, and the public to celebrate the lesser-known works of southern writers. The festival featured readings, performances, and discussions of work by those voices deserving to be rediscovered, revived, and reread.

Grants Awarded for Fiscal Year 2018
- Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta, “27th Edition of the Book Festival of the MJCCA”
- Perimeter College at Georgia State University, Dunwoody, “Revival: Lost Southern Voices Revisited”

Coming Grant-Funded Attractions in 2019
- April 13, 2019—“Revival: Lost Southern Voices, 3rd Annual,” Perimeter College at Georgia State University in Dunwoody
- June 15, 2019—“Gwinnett County Book Festival,” Atlanta-Area Writers Club, Alpharetta
- October 2019—“28th Edition of the Book Festival of the MJCCA,” Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta
National History Day Georgia

Using primary and secondary resources, middle- and high school students conduct and present original research by creating an exhibit, essay, documentary, performance, or website.

• Lakeside High student Nicholas Reynolds won a special award from the Georgia World War I Centennial Commission at the state contest for National History Day Georgia. This award recognized his historical paper, “The Spirit of the Holiday.”

PRIME TIME® Family Reading Time

A partnership with Georgia Public Library Service, this community literacy program targets at-risk families.

• Participating library: Tucker

GeorgiaEncyclopedia.org

A program of Georgia Humanities, in partnership with University of Georgia Press, University System of Georgia/GALILEO, and Office of the Governor. An award-winning, authoritative digital resource.