About the Awards

The Governor's Awards for the Arts and Humanities honor outstanding individuals and organizations that have made significant contributions to Georgia's civic and cultural vitality through service to the humanities or excellence in the arts.

Presented by the Office of the Governor in partnership with the Georgia Council for the Arts and Georgia Humanities, the Governor's Awards recognize the value of the arts and humanities in the creation of a thriving economy and their contributions to innovation and growth.

The Governor's Awards pay tribute to the most distinguished citizens and organizations that have demonstrated a lifetime commitment to work in these fields.

Nomination Guidelines

Individuals/Artists:

Nominations will be accepted for living individuals (posthumous awards will not be given) who have made significant and substantial long-lasting contributions to Georgia's cultural heritage through pioneering work in the arts or humanities. This award honors lifetime achievement in an individual's field. Examples of eligible nominees include, but are not limited to, artists, advocates, scholars, philanthropists, legislators, educators, folklorists, volunteers, and authors. Self-nominations will not be accepted.

Organizations (Not-for-Profit, Business, or Philanthropic):

Nominations will be accepted for organizations that have demonstrated historical and ongoing support for the arts or humanities in Georgia. Examples of notable activities by an organization include, but are not limited to, the use of the arts or humanities to address an acute community need, innovative programs in support of or utilizing the arts or humanities, and long-term financial commitment to supporting the sustainability and growth of the arts and humanities sector in Georgia. Self-nominations will not be accepted.

Who Can Nominate?

Nominations may be made by any resident of Georgia, excluding current members of the boards and staffs of the Georgia Council for the Arts, Georgia Department of Economic Development, and Georgia Humanities.

Selection Criteria & Process:

A panel of judges (composed of community members and representatives from the sponsoring organizations and the Office of the Governor) will evaluate the total body of work or contributions of the nominee and the impact of the nominee’s work on the cultural climate and vitality of Georgia.

Nominations must include:

- A complete nomination form: https://www.cognitoforms.com/GeorgiaHumanities/ 2024GovernorsAwardsForTheArts Humanities
- A complete nomination package, including a narrative summary and two letters of support

What to include in the narrative summary: A description of the nominee’s achievements that highlights 1) unique and significant contributions to enriching lives and strengthening communities in our state through the arts or humanities; 2) the impact of the nominee’s work at the local, state, or national level; 3) a brief history of the individual’s or the organization’s commitment to and participation in the arts or humanities.

Optional: Nominators may also provide links to three pieces of digital supporting material, which may include photographs, links to videos, artwork samples, music, or documentation of an individual’s or organization’s contribution to the arts or humanities.

Award Recipients

Award recipients will be notified in mid-August. A ceremony to honor recipients is traditionally held at the Georgia Capitol (more details will be announced in the fall).
