

Georgia Humanities Spring 2026 Grant Cycle

Georgia Humanities

Project Summary

---

Project Name***

Response limited to 250 characters.

Character Limit: 100

America250 Special Initiative***

Georgia Humanities' America250 special initiative supports public humanities projects that invite reflection on American history, civic values, and lived experience through a Georgia-centered lens.

Projects may examine how national ideals have been shaped, challenged, interpreted, and experienced over time, including through local histories, community narratives, and multiple or contested perspectives. America250 projects are not limited to events tied to the Revolutionary era or formal commemorations; rather, they invite reflection on the ongoing meanings and legacies of the American experiment as they relate to Georgia and its communities.

Participation in the America250 initiative is optional. Applicants are not required to address this initiative to be eligible for funding. Projects that do align with America250 themes may be considered as part of this special initiative.

Would you like this project to be considered under the Georgia Humanities America250 special initiative?

Humanities Scholars

---

Humanities Scholars***

List the credentials and/or experience of the project's humanities scholar(s), including their name, position, and institutional affiliation (if applicable), a brief biography for each scholar, and the specific ways the scholar(s) will inform the project. Please do not exceed more than a paragraph for each scholar listed. Do not include resumes or CVs of the project's humanities scholar(s).

Georgia Humanities considers a humanities scholar to be someone who meets one or both of the following qualifications:

- Holds an advanced degree (M.A. or higher) in the humanities discipline;
- Is a recognized expert with a verifiable record of working, teaching, and publishing in the humanities discipline and/or is acknowledged as such by other scholars in the field

Character Limit: 10000

Project Narrative

---

This section of the application provides the opportunity to share more information about the proposed project.

Describe the project's events and activities.***

Please focus this description on the activities that will be supported directly by Georgia Humanities grant funds.

Address the following questions: What is the need for this project? What activities and events will the project include? Are the project's events and activities free and open to the public?

Response limited to 4,500 characters.

How do the humanities inform this project?***

Please identify the humanities disciplines central to this project. What questions or issues will your project address? What makes these questions significant at this moment? How will this project connect the research and knowledge of humanities scholars with the public?

Responses limited to 2,500 characters.

Describe the intended audience(s) and desired audience reaction to this project.***

Who is this project designed to reach? If your organization has an established audience base, how will this project attract new audiences? What do you hope the project's audience(s) will learn, experience, or gain as a result of this project?

Responses limited to 2,500 characters.

Character Limit: 2500

Public Access***

Georgia Humanities-supported programs must be free and open to the public.

If your organization normally charges general admission (e.g., museum or historic site entry), and you are requesting approval for standard entry fees to apply during the grant-supported program, please describe:

- the amount of the entry fee,
- who would be required to pay it, and
- how public access to the program will be ensured.

Note: Entry fees are permitted only with prior written approval from Georgia Humanities.

Character Limit: 500

Supplementary Materials

In this section you may share any additional notes (about 100 words) or up to one (1) Excel, Word, or PDF file to support your project's narrative. You may use this space to present a few images or markups that would help illustrate your project's ideas.

Character Limit: 700 / File Size Limit: 7 MB

Publicity and Marketing

---

Publicity and Marketing***

What are your plans to publicize and promote the project? How will the publicity and marketing plan help reach the project's desired audience(s)?

Responses limited to 1,500 characters.

Timeline

Timeline***

Provide a timeline for your project, including planning, implementation, and post-program activities. Including as many details as are available is encouraged. Responses limited to 1,000 characters.

For example:

- March: Finalize project plan and run of show
- April: Develop discussion companion and interpretive materials
- May: Finalize panelists and supporting materials; confirm venue and technical needs
- June: Begin event promotion and outreach
- July–August: Continue promotion; coordinate logistics and participant travel
- September 15, 2026: Event date
- October–November: Collect participant feedback; complete project evaluation
- December 2026: Prepare and submit final report and budget reconciliation

Character Limit: 1000

Evaluations and Outcomes

---

Goals and Intended Outcomes***

What are the goals and intended outcomes of this project? Describe the methods you will use to evaluate your project, and how you will determine if the project was successful.

Responses limited to 1,500 characters.

Character Limit: 1500

Project Budget

---

Budget Narrative***

Please download the budget narrative template here, fill out and upload below. Please look over our budget and cost share policies to ensure your project is in compliance.

Note: Grant requests must fall between $1,000 and $7,500 for this grant opportunity. Applicants should ensure that the requested amount aligns with the proposed project scope and required cost share.

File Size Limit: 2 MB

Application Submission

---

By submitting this application, I certify to the statements contained in the list of certifications and attest that the statements are true, complete, and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I agree to comply with any stated terms of this grant award. I am further aware that any false or fraudulent claims or statements could establish criminal, civil, or administrative penalties as stated in U.S. Code, Title 213, Section 1001. Certifications and Assurances, as well as general terms and requirements that apply to this grant award, can be found online.

The applicant organization assumes all responsibilities as grantee. In signing and submitting a grant application, the applicant organization certifies that it will submit all required documents and reports on time. Recipients must certify their compliance with above named nondiscrimination statutes and affirm that they have not been disbarred or suspended from eligibility to receive these funds. By signing and submitting this application, the applicant organization is providing these certifications.
